

LENA YELLOW

Lena Yellow is a soul singer and songwriter working in collaboration with composer and pianist Tomas Sykora. Their music reflects a wide range of musical influences including afro-american soul, pop and jazz.

Their debut Positivity (released in November 2014) is literally brimming with positive energy. A number of great and experienced musicians co-operated in the making of this project. International collaborators include vocalists from the Boston Berklee College of Music and Australia. After releasing their album the band went on the "Positivity Tour" which ended with a high profile gig supporting world renown acid-jazz band

Incognito at Lucerna Music Bar in Prague.

The first single Fever was among the semifinalists of the international contest Unsigned Only 2014. This was followed by the single One-Two-Three in the International Songwriting Competition 2016.
